INTRODUCTION

This book is designed to help the criminal law students to study some elements of the criminal law meticulously. The book uses an easy format to explain the criminal justice system, inside and outside the courtroom. The purpose of this book is to take students through each topic in the syllabus for Elements of the criminal law in a way which will help them to understand the subject. It provides an outline of the major issues in this subject. The book consisted of ten chapters, each presents the most important aspects of the topic and provides the students activities to test their understanding of the topic and self-assessment exercises designed to assist their progress. The various exercises throughout the book focus on the key vocabulary that you might be expected to understand and use on a day-to-day basis. Each exercise is accompanied by a full answer key at the back of the book.

English For Criminal Law Students

We recommend that you keep a good dictionary with you, and refer to it when necessary. Many of the words and expressions in this book (together with their definitions) can be found in the A & C Dictionary of Law. For general vocabulary reference, the Macmillan English Dictionary is also an excellent resource.

We hope that readers can make best use of the present manuscript and succeed in their future educational journeys.
