Foreword

The present book is a compilation of the PhD questions and answers during the seven years of PhD examination in Azad University.

It was a very demanding act to publish a book on PhD questions for the first time, yet we tried our best to base all the answers on reliable sources hence they are not based on the authority of its compilers but rather on the authority of the sources that they have been taken from.

The answers are fully documented yet only suggested, so that they are not the one and ultimate answers to the questions.

The present work is in debt to the kind encouragement of Dr. Nojoumian, whom we need to express our sincere thanks.

We are also obliged to the kind assistance of Mr. Halimi for the undertaking of the publication of the present book.

Since no book is far from shortcomings, we gladly embrace all the reader's opinions.
