Preface

The purpose for preparing such a book was to help the students of Persian Literature to be familar with the Persian history and literature. It was, also, aimed to help the instructors of university who would teach or had been teaching Specific Texts of Persian Literature Students. We hope that other collegues and friends of us try to prepare such kinds of books to help the other people engaging in teaching and learning process. Although the texts in this book may have some lacks and shortcomings, we tried our best to gather the materials related to other courses that the students of Persian Literature must pass during their studying.
