

CONTENTS

Contributors	4
--------------	---

1 Introduction to the Handbook	5
Simon Eliot and W.R. Owens

Part 1: Tools of the trade

2 Research techniques and the use of libraries	13
W.R. Owens
3 Using the Internet for literary research	19
Simon Eliot

Part 2: Textual scholarship and book history

4 Bibliography	30
Simon Eliot
5 History of the book	40
Simon Eliot
6 Editing literary texts	63
W.R. Owens

Part 3: Literary research and literary theory

7 From New Criticism to structuralism	85
Graham Martin
8 Literature, gender, feminist criticism	117
Richard Allen
9 Deconstruction	131
Stuart Sim
10 Reader-response criticism and reception theory	139
Stephen Regan
11 New Historicism	150
Graham Martin
12 Post-colonial theory	159
Denise Waller

Part 4: The dissertation

13 Planning, writing and presenting a dissertation	173
W.R. Owens

Part 5: Reference

14 Glossary	187
Simon Eliot and W.R. Owens
15 Library exercises – model answers	199
W.R. Owens
16 Checklist of libraries, reference books and other sources	204
Anthony Coulson

Index