Preface

English has played a central role as the common international language in linking people who have different mother tongues. For children living in the 21st century, it is essential to acquire communication abilities in English as a key to open the doors of the world. In addition, one of the things that separate nature English speakers from those learners the language is the correct use of idioms, but what is idion? The e are many phrases in English which can be very confuring to people trying to learn the language, e people trying to learn the language, e people try phrases which we try to understand literally but acqually mean something very different. These phrases are known as idiomatic phrases, or idioms.

In this book, we've included only the most frequently used, and therefore useful, idioms and phrasal expressions with mealings in both English and Persian for comparison examples for a clearer understanding and practical approximation of the material, and stories for added deptiling practice.

The vook eeps in step with the time and the main object is to help ESL learners develop and use proferrity the four macro skills: listening, speaking, reading, writing and thinking skills in meaningful communication.

Funtastic 1 is designed to serve as a textbook for ESL. No matter how the book is used, it will equip an ESL students and professionals with a solid understanding of various issues related to idioms and the learning of them.
