1. Prelude

Less than a century from the prophetic mission of the last divine prophet and messenger had passed. Islam was quickly spreading in the east and west of the world and it was as if the people who were thirsty for truth for centuries and were searching the lucid and fluent springs of divine truths had found their missing and warmly welcomed the new religion in legions.

Although they quenched their thirst in the springs of the new religion but soon they would realize that this water is not the clear strainer announced by the previous prophets and saints and reformers who had invited them for its search and after research they found out that the tyrant caliphs and profane, irreligious scholars have grasped this roaring river and spoiled it unjustly and undeservingly.

At the time when enemies of god and humanity attempted to malign this roaring and fertile river and poison the world, the true divine messengers arose and fought with the help of a few of their pious and resolute followers. They would clear out the slime of ignorance and atheism and contention and drove away the poisonous snakes that had dug their fangs in to the water and poured out poison in to the lake in order to let the clear truth flow again and vitality and greenness and life runs in the veins of time and the pained morning glory of humanity grows once again towards the blue sky of salvation.

Imam Baqer (PBUH) was one of the brave men who by God's order, singly revolted against the treacheries and frustrations and enlivened and revived his great grandfather's religion which was about to become the victim of the present barbarism and guarded it against distortions and alterations and deceptive and seductive interpretations.

Now we will have a short trip through this great man's life in order to use just about a drop of his sea of Islamic knowledge which is manifested in his words and behavior.
