PREFACE

The title of these booklets "Kalāmukum Nūr" is selected from al-Ziyārah al-Jāmi'ah al-Kabīrah ascribed to Imam 'Alī al-Naqī ('a). "Kalāmukum Nūr" will illuminate human mind all over the globe and the resulting cultural globalization will lead to peace, justice and amity between all nations with due honor for human rights.

A few sayings and narrations of the immaculate guiding authorities have been translated by Sayyid Zainul 'Ābidīn Razavi who has written explanatory notes as well, especially for foreigners who like to learn or embrace Islam. The translator had his education up to MSc. (Chemical Technology) as well as industrial training in UK for two years and in France for ten months. He was recommended by the Iranian Ambassador in India for employment in Iran as he had twenty years experience in research and cellulosic industries.

Mr. S. Z. 'Ābidīn obtained Iranian nationality with his ancestral family name Razavi after migrating to Iran. He served in different Iranian organizations. He edited books in English for Islamic propagation organization and for 'Allāmah Nūrī. He was a state guest at international sharī'ah conference in Pakistan where he made a speech on Islamic laws.

All those who have helped with suggestions, editing, typing, printing and publishing of these booklets will definitely be rewarded by God, the Beneficent, the Merciful, in this world here and in the Hereafter. For ease of distribution on the occasions of birth, demise or martyrdom of the fourteen guiding lights, "Kalāmukum Nūr" is printed as separate booklets and those who are interested in publishing these booklets as such or after translation into other languages for illuminating all the world with these words of wisdom will be regarded by God as assistants and lovers of the Imam of the Present Age, Imam Mahdī ('a).

To err is human and to forgive divine, therefore for next edition all suggestions are welcome with gratefulness by the author.
