Imam of kindness and kindness of imam to children

Dear my child,

Imam Khomeini was a real follower of holy prophet of Islam and infallible Imams (p.b.u.th) and they were kind to children, Imam Khomeini treated children kindly too.

Holy defence museum, which is founded for promotion of resistance culture, intends to make you familiar with Imam Khomeini's attitude, as the great founder of Islamic revolution and the leader of oppressed Muslims of the world, in order to take steps to better introduction of Imam Khomeini and Islamic revolution.

We hope your attention proves the success of these undertakings.

Highly reflective surfaces, such as white roofs, can reduce the amount of solar radiation absorbed by a building, thereby reducing the need for air conditioning and lowering energy costs. This is particularly beneficial in hot climates where cooling loads are high. Reflective surfaces can also help reduce the urban heat island effect by reflecting more solar radiation than dark surfaces.
