(ˈ) shows the strong stress: it is in front of the part of the word that you say most strongly, for example because /bɪ'koz/.

(ˌ) shows a weaker stress. Some words have a part that is said with a weaker stress as well as a strong stress, for example OK /əʊ'keɪ/.

(r) at the end of a word means that in British English you say this sound only when the next word begins with a vowel sound. In American English, you always pronounce this 'r'.

Some words, for example at and must, have two pronunciations. We give the usual pronunciation first. The second pronunciation must be used when the word is stressed, and is also often used when the word is at the end of a sentence. For example:

This book is for /fə(r)/ Lisa.

Who is this book for? /fɔ:(r)/
