Introduction

From the age of 18 I started working as an educational consultant. I worked with a large number of school and university students. Despite all the effort I made for their success, there were always those 10% who wouldn't succeed. For years I carried out numerous researches and studies, but I couldn't find a solution.

Until the year 2009 when I began my television program (Family Program) on national television, Channel One. Even though I was invited on the program as an educational consultant to help the students, I realized that the majority of viewers were parents (especially mothers).

At first it was difficult for me, with years of experience in television programs, and being able to make a good connection with the families, I identified the main problem: moms and dads.

In some cases, no matter how much I worked with a student, they wouldn't succeed and that was because their family situation and their parent's beliefs would not allow them to succeed!

There are a thousand and one reasons which state, no matter how much your kid studies, if the parents won't allow it, they won't succeed.

I truly believe that any family which has a child who has reached school age should definitely read this book. And if their child has reached high school, then unless they read this book they should stop thinking about their kid's success.

I swear I have talked about all that is necessary in this book, from the things I teach the top consultants in the country, to the latest studies from around the world which I teach the students' parents at seminars.

This is the only book in the world which can turn parents into their kid's educational consultant.

I hope parents won't stumble over their pride and their true interests, and skip a page. While reading this book, think carefully and write down the ideas that come to your mind in the space provided on each page.

The book consists of 4 chapters:

First chapter (spring): this is the most important section of this book and if you don't do as it says, then the rest of the chapters will be useless. That is because firstly we have to change your thoughts for the better. Many parents try their hardest to make their children study, but since their thoughts are wrong, no matter how much their kids try and study, they won't reach the desired result. So, before amending our kids, we need to change ourselves. I've counted 16 wrong beliefs that exist in families, and so that you won't get bored I've come up with a scenario for each of the book's lessons. If you like your child to do his/her homework properly, answer the questions at the end of each chapter. I promise by reading the first chapter of this book, besides your child's educational success, you'll achieve great success in your life as well.

Second chapter (summer): a look at the family's duties during the important exam times. How many families do we know that by their unprofessional behavior have brought down their children's GPA?

We mustn't think that a high school kid is grown up and knows what to do.

The families with successful children provide many facilities for their child during their exam times, and so you can use their approach, I've provided you with this chapter. By observing this chapter's lesson, your child's results will increase considerably.

Third chapter (autumn): Here I talk about the family's biggest problem: stress.

I've included the most up-to-date psychological information in the world so you can get the best ride out of the stubborn horse of stress. Make stress your and your child's ally. Incredible successes are awaiting you that you would not believe. By observing this season's important points, an amazing spring will take place in your family's life. Your child will make an effort with more joy than before. In this chapter I teach you how to talk to them and which words to use so you can provide them with more motivation.

Fourth chapter (winter): the most attractive chapter in this book, it is for families who, as "Lao Tse" said, want to teach their kids how to fish instead of having to catch fish for their kids; they want their kids to become so capable that they would even give their parents fish as a present. By investing in your kids, you can make a higher materialistic and spiritual profit than by buying a property or a car.

To make this investment you need to make time, read books, think and study. In this chapter I'll tell you the secrets of bringing up self-driven children. For the first time, my theory is written in this book so that families can use this new psychological point of view for the first time. Write about your success and how this book affected you at www.alimirsadeghi.com.

Behind the lines of the page, I worry about seeing the tired look on your face
Lest your son or daughter not visit the page
and see your writing
I worry that he/ she will one day learn his/ her parents, have given up the book
Maybe sleep
Maybe work
Maybe exhaustion
This is what kids do
To see the smallest mistakes under their little magnifier,
And see it as big as the world
I worry, I worry about the children
To untruthfully tell us
"Why didn't you make time"
As much as these 4-5 pages?!

INDEX

Spring: Why don't you let your kid study?

1st belief (page 29)

If you want your kids to have a positive attitude towards education, then throw away your negative thoughts.

2nd belief (page 32)

Do you think in your society there's no chance of success? Then how can you ask your children to become successful in the same society?

3rd belief (page 35)

Unless you can change, don't demand change from your children.

4th belief (page 39)

Change your negative beliefs towards hard work, and then ask them to study hard.

- How many hours do successful people work?
- Do successful individuals work on weekends as well?

5th belief

(page 45)

Don't consider yourself a know-it-all.

- Is comparing your children to others an appropriate thing to do?
- Sending your children overseas for further study?

Have you ever accepted tough advice in your own life, that now you want to recruit a tough consultant for your child?

- What to do about the things we are afraid of?

7th belief

Do you like to show your interest in relation to your child's success? If so, cut down on your own and your family's recreation time.

- Difference between expense and cost.
- What to do when we face a request to change our child's school?
- What are the duties of a professional family when dealing with their child's school?
- Description of a parent-friend relationship
- When does the father need to be home?
- How to control our child's friendships
- When is it necessary to check up on school?
- Is it good to use the school bus or not?

8th belief

(page 68)

Your child will only succeed as much as you determine.

- How to support our child in tough situations
- How to behave in response to low grades and teachers' criticism
- How to think so that one day our child will be the hero in our life
- By using a private tutor, what kind of belief do you shape in your child's mind?
- How to compare our child to his/ her friend

9th belief

(page 75)

Did you know that providing your child with useless resources can quickly turn your child into a spoilt kid?

- When your child says, I study but I don't get results.
- Is buying a lot of extra study aid books a beneficial thing to do?
- How to say "No" in response to our child's inappropriate requests
- Which is better, getting a consultant or a private tutor?

In the 21st century, please don't live with the beliefs of someone in medieval times.

- The relationship between advances in technology, and your child's needs.
- How to make a good financial investment
