In the Name of Allah
The Compassionate the Merciful

Due to their ease of preparation and objectivity in scoring, multiple choice test items are widely used in many areas and academic institutions particularly in the selection of limited number of applicants from the hundreds of participants to enter a specific course. As far as the English literature is concerned, there are varieties of books both on the Iranian market and the international book stores. However, since books of this sort are mainly published with detailed explanatory answers, the authors are forced to limit the number of questions they can cover paying due considerations to space limitations.

It has been the authors' long-standing desire to provide all the parties involved in studying and testing English literature with substantial number of multiple choice test items to be used for learning and testing English literature. The current book contains around 3000 multiple choice questions divided into seven chapters namely:

* literary criticism	(532 test items)
* history of English literature	(597 test items)
* literary schools	(200 test items)
* literary terms	(480 test items)
* poetry	(505 test items)
* novel	(401 test items)
* drama	(349 test items)
* TOTAL	(3064 test items)

The test items in each area are so varied that by simply studying them the reader can get a comprehensive idea of the topics covered. However, as the number of test items indicates, the authors are sure that the book will not be error-free. So they kindly request all the users of the book to provide the authors with their constructive comments and corrective points in both the test items and the suggested correct answers. They are also hoping to be able to provide the future editions with more subheadings if they feel that the users prefer the book that way.

At the end, the authors would like to sincerely thank Mr. Sabahi, the director of Rahnama Publishing Company who made this book available to the Iranian community of English literature lovers.
