Acknowledgements

My thanks go to my former students who gave me the initial impetus to write this book.

I am also indebted to my colleagues who have taught this book at different universities and have provided me with invaluable comments and feedback.

I have my special thanks to Mr. Parviz Esmalifalak who has patiently typed and beautifully designed the pages without whose efforts this book could have come out otherwise.

Last, but by no means least, I am particularly grateful to my patient wife and my beloved child for having tolerated a busy husband and father, respectively, over the years.
