Introduction

Bridge is a complete course for students preparing for international exams such as IELTS, TOEFL, FCE, etc. It has 12 units, each including a variety of grammar activities, a video section, an IELTS section, and two topics for discussion. Providing students with activities of various types, it comprehensively covers all four skills. In addition, Bridge will help language learners move toward advanced levels.

Each unit of Bridge consists of a video section related to the theme of the unit in which the students are fed with relevant expressions, vocabulary and language. The video will enable the students to discuss the topic utterly and efficiently.

Class discussions offer students opportunities to test their ideas and opinions against the ideas and opinions of their peers. The discussion section of Bridge includes two topics for each unit in which useful words and structures are taught. More importantly, students learn how to express their opinions about a topic. One of the topics preferably concerns the theme of the unit and the other one is provided for the students to improve their discussion skills and it could be dealt with voluntarily.

Grammar is important because it is the language that makes it possible for us to talk about language. Grammar names the types of words and word groups that make up sentences not only in English but also in any other language. As human beings, we can put sentences together and make meaningful speeches. But in order to be able to talk about how sentences are built, about the types of words and word groups that make up sentences in a language, we need to study the grammar of that language. Knowing about grammar offers a window into the human mind and into our amazingly complex mental capacity.

The grammar section of Bridge consists of various exercises directly related to the grammar points of each unit. These exercises are of various types designed for the purpose of helping students understand what makes sentences and paragraphs clear and precise. English course books may lack grammar exercise, and this weakness made us come up with the idea of including a section of further useful exercises in Bridge. This section is aimed at bringing the gap regarding grammar as the importance of grammar is undeniable.

The IELTS section of Bridge provides students with essential words, phrases, idioms and all useful structures necessary to get an ideal IELTS speaking score. This section also simulates the condition of speaking section of IELTS exam by providing the related topics, questions and cue cards. To be more precise, in this section, there are several topics and cue cards with different questions together with answers. By studying this part, students will be able to answer the questions convincingly that is what the IELTS examiners are looking for.
